DECISION ON ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS¹

On March 8, 2021, Tina Marie Moore filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the "Vaccine Act").³ Petitioner alleges that she suffered a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration ("SIRVA") as a result of a tetanus, diphtheria, and pertussis ("Tdap") vaccine that was administered on July 20, 2018. Petition at 1. On April 5, 2023, a decision

If, upon review, I agree that the identified material fits within this definition, I will redact such material from public access.

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all section references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

³ After filing her initial petition for vaccine compensation on March 8, 2021, petitioner subsequently filed an amended petition on September 15, 2021, and a second amended petition on January 14, 2022.

was issued awarding compensation to Petitioner based on the parties' stipulation. ECF No. 38.

Petitioner has now filed a motion for attorney's fees and costs, dated April 11, 2023. ECF No. 42. Petitioner is requesting a total award of $15,054.30 (representing $14,445.50 in fees and $608.80 in costs). In accordance with General Order No. 9, Petitioner filed a signed statement indicating that she incurred no out-of-pocket expenses. ECF No. 42 -2. Respondent reacted to the motion on April 25, 2023, indicating that he is satisfied that the statutory requirements for an award of attorney's fees and costs are met in this case, but deferring resolution of the amount to be awarded to my discretion. ECF No. 43. Petitioner did not file a reply thereafter.

I have reviewed the billing records submitted with Petitioner's request. In my experience, the request appears reasonable, and I find no cause to reduce the requested hours or rates.

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs for successful claimants. Section 15(e). Accordingly, I hereby GRANT Petitioner's Motion for attorney's fees and costs. I award a total of $15,054.30 (representing $14,445.50 in fees and $608.80 in costs) as a lump sum in the form of a check jointly payable to Petitioner and Petitioner's counsel, Carl Joseph McCoy. In the absence of a timely-filed motion for review (see Appendix B to the Rules of the Court), the Clerk of Court shall enter judgment in accordance with this Decision.⁴
